The Court made the following:

JUDGMENT: (Per Honourable Justice Sri S.Ananda Reddy)

This writ appeal is filed by the employee of the respondent company, aggrieved by the non of payment of the V.R.S. benefits to the petitioner though his application was accepted vide proceedings dated 31-10-2002 and was relieved under the said proceedings.

The employee is the writ petitioner and the respondent herein is the Nizam Sugars Limited.

The Writ petition was dismissed on the ground that the matter pertaining to the employee was referred to the Inspector, Ante Corruption Bereau and the same is pending. Aggrieved by that, the present writ appeal is filed.

At the time of hearing, it is represented that the ACB has already completed its enquiry and even submitted its report which is favorable to the employee. But, however, the said report is pending with the Government for taking decision.

In view of the above stated facts, the respondent Company is directed to deposit the entire amount payable to the writ petitioner-employee under the VRS Scheme in State Bank of Hyderabad, Bagh Lingampally Branch, Hyderabad, within a period of one (1) Week from today and the interest accrued thereon is payable to him every month pending final decision by the Government. The Government is also further directed to take a decision and pass appropriate orders within a period of 3 (three) months. The deposit, so made as directed above, shall be subject to the out come of the final orders that are going to be passed by the State Government.

With the above direction, the writ appeal is disposed of.
